Pitch & Putt Club

There's been plenty of action lately at Castlelyons Pitch and Putt. It's been great to welcome all our new members

– it's really shaken up the Sunday morning competition!

• Competitions that have been completed in the last quarter are Fleming Shield – Kevin Cotter retained the shield, with a rematch of 2014, beating Phillip Murphy. The Holton Shield was won by Noel Coughlan – great to see life in the “old dog” yet Noel. Noel narrowly beat Denis Carroll on the back 9. Denis won 1st Nett, John Milward 1st Gross and Martin Crowley best 36. Next up was Captain's Prize – Danny Healy ran a hugely popular competition and it was fantastic to see Alan O'Donoghue winning his first “major”. Other results were 1st Nett Martin Crowley, 1st Gross St John O'Connor, 2nd Nett Denis Carroll, Best 36 Nett Noel Cronin; Best 36 Gross John Milward; Past Capt Kevin Cotter. Lady Captain's prize is ongoing – as usual Majella is a great competition host.

• Many thanks to all who have helped out with maintaining the course over the summer, giving lots of locals the opportunity to avail of the facility.

• U 21 Hurlers in East Cork Final - Castlelyons 2-21 Cloyne2-13

We played Cloyne in the Semi final of the East Cork U 21 B hurling championship on Wednesday last in Killeagh. Pitch conditions were good which resulted in a fine open match with good scores from each side. R Bransfield left the field with a nasty hand injury and we wish him well as he recovers with this.

We now go on to play Watergrasshill in the final which will probably take place in early September.

Team: J Barry, S Fenton, D Varner, C Lawlor, C O'Neill, T Carroll (0-01), K O Leary (0-01), R Bransfield, N O Leary (0-01), J O Leary, A Spillane (0-13 6f), S Moroney, B O Donovan, A Fenton (2-03), R O Regan (0-01).
